About Me

Hi, I'm Rauf, a second-year BSAI student at QUEST University, Nawabshah. I'm also a passionate frontend web developer intern at Icreativiz. I enjoy developing visually captivating web applications. Additionally, I work on AI and machine learning projects and have a keen interest in hardware-related innovations. In fact, during my current (third) semester, I'm working on an exciting project that integrates both hardware and software.
